Panel Management for Dollars Seminar

About

Practices are challenged with managing their patient populations and identifying patients whose health is at risk or potentially at risk.

Given today's payment transformation landscape, providers are seeking opportunities to increase their knowledge of billable health care services.

This seminar will explore the challenges of managing patient populations and provide practical methodologies to optimize reimbursements.

Speakers

Ranjani Starr, PhD, MPH, is an epidemiologist for the Hawaii State Department of Health. She specializes in chronic disease surveillance and evaluation. She has substantial experience in data management and dissemination for chronic diseases.

Tina Morishima, CPC, has worked in the health care industry for over 20 years. She has extensive experience in clinical and hospital medical billing systems. As a Certified Professional Coder, her experiences include conducting audit reviews for coding and CMS compliance for different specialty providers. Currently she is a Practice Facilitator at Mountain-Pacific Quality Health.
